Arms Limitation Treaty Will Probably Be Ready For Signature This Week

ONLY TECHNICAL DETAILS REMAIN TO BE WORKED OUT

Complete Text of Pact May Be Ready for Plenary Session Thursday or Friday

Discuss Wording

Questions of Definition Understood to Be Chief Concern of the Delegates

(By The Associated Press).

Washington, Jan. 9.—Only details of technical phraseology remained to be worked out before the treaty for limitation of armament is ready for signature by the plenipotentiaries of the five great powers.

Passing today on its last question of policy, the armament committee of the Washington conference decided against any present attempt to limit or regulate aerial warfare and voted to refer the problem to a continuing commission for future study.

Then each of the five delegations meeting separately, began an examination of the tentative treaty draft prepared by the subcommittee of experts. The delegation heads are to come together late tomorrow to compare opinions and it is expected that the complete text will be ready for publication at a plentary session Thursday or Friday.

Wording of Treaty Debated.

Questions of definition, particularly with reference to the status of merchant vessels in wartime, are understood to be the chief concern of the delegates in their efforts to agree on a wording acceptable to everyone. Some features fo the merchant ship problem already have been cleared away, however, and there is no indication that a prolonged discussion will result.

With the armament end of the conference approaching final disposition, the delegates are preparing to press the Far Eastern discussions also to an early conclusion. The Shantung question still is in deadlock, but fresh hope of a settlement was aroused tonight, when it became apparent that the negotiations on that subject were turning into new channels. The other remaining elements of discord in the Far East are not generally considered of a character to lead to extended debate.

Some delegates took so optimistic a view of the outlook that they were predicting a plenary session for Saturday or Monday to announce completion of the Far Eastern treaty. Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British, made definite plans to sail for home on Tuesday of next week, and his colleagues on the delegation declared that it was entirely likely that he would sign the Far Eastern agreement before his departure.

On the other hand, it became apparent tonight that the study of the naval treaty text by individual delegations was promising to consume more time than originally had been alloted for it.

Americans Discuss Merchant Shipping.

In American circles the relation of merchant shipping to the general naval question was discussed from a new angle as a result of a suggestion by Homer L. Ferguson, head of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock company, that the arms conference take on an allocation of shipping factors and opportunities. The proposal was laid before President Harding at a White House conference attended by Mr. Ferguson, Chairman Lasker of the shipping board and Chairman Jones of the senate commerce committee, but there appeared no immediate prospect that it would receive administration approval.

Another question said to remain undetermined in the tentative draft of the treaty relates to the building of warships within the jurisdiction of the signatory powers but for the use of outside nations.

Proponents of the absolute prohibition against such construction are taking the position that their plan would be a valuable limitation on naval building, since many of the smaller nations could not afford to install extensive shipyards of their own. On the other hand, it is argued that a prohibition might encourage shipyard development among the nations that now are lesser naval powers, at the same time that it deprived the "Big Five" of the control they otherwise could have over the size of warships built for foreign account within their jurisdiction.

Aside from Shantung, the Far Eastern questions remaining in abeyance relate chiefly to the Chinese railroads and to elements involved in China's request for abrogation of the agreements resulting from the "21 demands." A declaration is to be made also with respect to Siberia, but no great difficulty is expected in case of an agreement on that point.

Both the Chinese and Japanese implied tonight that new and promising elements had been injected into the Shantung negotiations, but the nature of the latest move was not revealed.

Farmers Approve Arms Conference

LIMITATION OF MILITARY AIRCRAFT "IMPRACTICABLE"

(By The Associated Press).

Washington, Jan. 9.—All suggestions for limitation of military aircraft were thrust aside as impracticable today by the naval committee of the arms conference, the following resolution being adopted:

"The committee is of the opinion that it is not at present practicable to impose any effective limitations upon the numbers or characteristics of aircraft, either commercial or military."

At the same time, agreement was reached for the creation of a mixed commission of experts and jurists to take up at some future time a study of the rules of warfare in their application to aerial operations. The exact wording of the resolution to this end, including the specific mission of the commission and just how the body was to be constituted was left to the drafting committee.

The resolution declaring aircraft limitation impracticable at this time follows closely the language of the report of the subcommittee. It was changed however, to eliminate an exception to lighter-than-air craft noted by the subcommittee the full committee discussion making it clear that the delegations were agreed that the same general argument against restricting aircraft development because of the wide possibilities the future may hold for commercial aviation, applied both to submarines and dirigibles.

Balfour's Suggestion Adopted.

Another change in the sub-committee conclusion was the insertion, at the suggestion of Arthur J. Balfour, of the British group, of the words "at present." Mr. Balfour said the time might come when arms limitation projects could be projected into the field of aviation, more definite knowledge then being available as to a practical distinction between commercial and military flying machines.

Senator Schanzer of Italy expressed regret that it was the opinion of the conference that nothing could now be undertaken in the way of limiting military aviation to avoid competition, as competitive building of capital ships was to be curbed. He suggested a future conference on the subject and called attention to the fact that Italy's representative on the sub-committee had thought some limitation of air forces might be possible through restriction of the number of military pilots.

Senator Underwood replied that airplanes and dirigibles both were used for land and naval warfare and for commercial purposes. A pilot training for commercial work could fly a military machine, he added, and for this reason and also because the question of land armaments was not to be taken up by the present conference, he agreed with the technical committee that aircraft limitations were impracticable.

Captured Negro Confesses He Killed Two Detectives

Philadelphia, Jan. 9.—Luther Boddy, a negro captured here today by a magistrate of his own race, a patrolman and a constable, signed a statement, local authorities said, confessing he had fired the shots that killed two New York detectives. Boddy was held for extradition to New York.

He was taken prisoner by Amos Scott, a negro magistrate acting on information received from a negro clergyman.

A statement which the local authorities said the prisoner signed, follows in part:

"I had been on parole in New York and feeling the police would annoy me by picking me up in the street, even though my parole had expired last week, I thought I would go to my parole officer and tell him I was going to try to get work.

"While walking along the street within a few feet of a station house, I was approached by two detectives. They grabbed me and started to question me in regard to the murder of a negro policeman. I had nothing to do with the murder, but I knew the detectives planned to take me to the station house and put me through the third degree.

"I don't know what made me do it, but it flashed in my mind to shoot and kill them. I drew a revolver and shot both men and ran. I threw the revolver in an ash can as I ran and [illegible] my way to Newark."

IRELAND MINUS A GOVERNMENT

Vote of 60 to 58 Defeats DeValera's Re-election as "President of the Republic"

GRIFFITH PROPOSED

Collins Offers Motion Requesting Him to Form Provisional Government

(By The Associated Press)

Dublin, Jan. 9.—Ireland tonight is without a government of its own. Eamonn DeValera resigned from the presidency and the proposal for his reelection to that office, which includes the office of premier, was defeated in the Dail Eireann by a vote of 60 to 58.

Mr. DeValera made it clear that all the members of his ministry, whether they voted for or against the treaty, went out of office with him.

A noteworthy feature of Mr. DeValera's latest statement was that talk of fratricidal strike was all nonsense; the Irish people would know how to conduct themselves.

The course to which the former president; after his defeat, urged his opponents, was to appoint a president in his place and let, that president appoint his own ministers. He accepted defeat in good spirit and pledged his support to the new government so long as it was marching along the road to Irish independence.

It soon became evident that the supporters of the treaty were not anxious to submit any name for the presidency. Richard Mulcahy, chief of staff, recalled that the Dail had got along for a considerable time without any president. Eventually Michael Collins submitted a motion which he had been prevented from moving as an amendment to the motion for DeValera's re-election—that the Dail should request Arthur Griffith to form a provisional government.

DeValera Presses Argument.

This did nothing to clear the situation, and Mr. DeValera rose frequently to press his argument that they must act constitutionally, keep the republic in being and give it a ministry. He objected to the creation of any alternative government which would suppress the Dail, and declared that if the republic as it existed was abandoned he and his followers would walk out.

DeValera's declaratoin of willingness to stand behind the new government, if such action entailed no sacrifice of principle, was loudly cheered. However, Mr. DeValera's words were not echoed by several of his Republican followers. Miss MacSwiney, Liam Mellowes and David Kent, and others, displayed a determination to fight out the Republican cause.

Mr. Collins apparently thought they could summon a ratifying body of members for Southern Ireland, including the four members representing Trinity college. They could call it the Dail Eireann until somebody knowing Irish well could find a better name for it. This was immediately countered with the reminder that the Trinity college members would not take the Republican oath.

Finally John J. O'Kelly, minister of education, argued that Mr. Collins' motion was out of order because no notice had been given. The speaker sustained the argument, but pointed out that all the proceedings today were similarly out of order and could be carried only by convention consent. Adjournment until tomorrow morning was moved and Mr. Collins said he would hand in notice of his motion.

RUSSIA TO JOIN ECONOMIC CONFAB

Wires Acceptance of Invitation to Genoa Conference Before It Is Dispatched

(By The Associated Press).

Cannes, France, Jan. 9.—Official announcement was made today that Soviet Russia will be represented at the forthcoming economic conference to be held at Genoa. This information was contained in a wireless dispatch received by the supreme council before a formal invitation to the Soviet government had actually been drawn up, and the speed with which the Russians have replied to the announcement that they were to be invited was construed to mean that they are keenly desirious of joining with the nations on almost any terms acceptable to the Allies.

Simultaneously with the making public of Russia's intention to have representation at Genoa, it became known that the German delegation headed by Dr. Walter Rathenau, will arrive in Cannes Wednesday to discuss the question of reparations with the Supreme Council.

The reparations experts and the committee dealing with the proposed international financial corporation today outlined their program, which comprises a vast effort for European reconstruction. The reparations experts decided that Germany should be asked to pay 720,000,000 gold marks in 1922 and at least an equal sum annually afterwards. Such payments, it is considered, will be sufficient to meet the interest on a series of German bonds of twenty billion gold marks, which thus will become negotiable.

The economic committee decided upon an international corporation with a capital of two million pounds sterling, with its seat in London and with a board of directors nominated by affiliated companies in each interested country. These countries, including the United States, will organize corporations for promotion only and will serve as mediums for credit transactions and for facilitating the activity of private enterprises in all countries which is now obstructed by lack of credits and disorganized finances. This plan presupposes the organization of affiliated companies in Germany as well as in the United States.

U. S. AMBASSADOR SLIGHTLY HURT IN AUTO MISHAP

Quiet and Rest All That Is Necessary for Harvey's Complete Recovery, Cannes Physicians Declare

(By The Associated Press.)

Cannes, France, Jan. 9.—George Harvey, the American ambassador to Great Britain, who was injured in an automobile accident this morning, had recovered to such an extent this evening that his physicians said he probably would be able to attend Thursday's session of the supreme council.

Any fear that complications might develop from Mr. Harvey's injuries was dissipated this evening by an examination made by the doctors, who said that 58 hours of rest and quiet probably would be all that was necessary for the patient's complete recovery.

Accompanied by Richard Crane, former American minister to Czecho-

GEORGE HARVEY

Slovakia, in whose car he was riding, and Wickham Steed, editor of the "London Times," Ambassador Harvey was on his way for a round of golf. The axle of Mr. Crane's machine broke and Mr. Harvey was thrown out of the car, landing heavily in the road on his back. He was able to arise but was rushed back to his hotel in a dazed condition.

Physicians found him suffering from shock and from severe bruises on his back. His dazed condition after the accident lasted more than an hour. Mr. Crane was uninjured but Mr. Steed suffered from buises and shock.

As soon as the news of the accident became known to the delegates at the allied supreme council, at which Ambassador Harvey was acting as observer for his government, they sent expressions of sympathy and congratulations at his escape.

Ambassador Harvey returned to a normal condition so quickly after his accident to be able to read and approve the medical bulletin regarding his mishap. He was especially anxious to have it known by the state department that his condition was not serious and that he was confident he would be able to attend the closing sessions of the council.

It was understood that Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador at Paris, would replace Ambassador Harvey at the council meeting until Mr. Harvey could attend the sittings. Ambassador Herrick was informed of the situation in a telephone message to Beaulieu, where he was spending a vacation, and he hurried to Cannes by automobile.

The bulletin issued by the three doctors attending Ambassador Harvey read:

"The American ambassador was in an automobile accident this morning which caused the bruising of the dorsolumbar region. Although this will confine him to his bed for a few days, it will entail no serious consequences."

Premier Lloyd George called on Ambassador Harvey this afternoon and they talked together for a quarter of an hour.

It appears that the Crane car's broken axle was caused by another machine striking it and the British premier said it was especially regrettable that the automobile which struck the Crane car should have been a British motor car used by the [illegible] stenger.

NOT CONSCIOUS OF ANY WRONG, SAYS NEWBERRY

For Half Hour, Michigan Senator Reads Prepared Statement Defending Himself

FRIENDS HOPEFUL

Believe Two or Three Doubtful Republicans Will Vote for Seating Him Tomorrow

Washington, Jan. 9. — Standing in his place in the senate and speaking publicly for the first time in his own defense, Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan declared today that with God as his witness he was not to this hour conscious of a single unlawful, dishonorable or corrupt act in his campaign against Henry Ford in 1918.

For exactly half an hour, Mr. Newberry, with the eyes of his colleagues upon him, read a prepared speech without interruption. When he had concluded, for half an hour more he was subjected to a cross-examination at the hands of Senator Walsh of Montana, a Democratic member of the committee, who, in a minority report, held he was not entitled to his seat.

How Senator Newberry came through the trying ordeal was viewed for the most part through partisan eyes. There appeared to be no doubt that his Republican friendes were jubilant. They rushed toward him as he edged his way from the crowded chamber, offering congratulations. Many Democrats later asserted that Senator Williams of Mississippi had about expressed their view when he characterized the Michigan senator's defense as "full of evasion."

Walsh Alone Questions Newberry.

Unaccustomed to public speaking, Senator Newberry read clearly and distinctly, first announcing that he could not longer remain silent, and that he would not suffer interruptions, but would gladly yield for questions when he had reached the end of his statement.

There had been intimations that he would be the center of a hot fire of questions, but only Senator Walsh interrogated him after he had read his speech, and the inquiry related strictly and specifically to certain features of the evidence, as adducted at his trial and before a senate committee.

Vote May Be Taken Wednesday.

Friends of the senator claimed tonight that his speech had made a "fine impression" and that two or three Republicans classed as doubtful, were ready to vote to seat him. The vote may be taken Wednesday.

Defending Senator Newberry, Senator Sterling declared the former had directed that no campaign attack be made on Mr. Ford and that the expenditure of large sums for advertising was necessary "against a formidable opponent" who was thoroughly advertised.

There was a dramatic turn when Senator Williams, swinging on his heels and facing half a dozen of his colleagues, asked if they believed the Newberry statement filed with the senate in which Mr. Newberry said he had no knowledge of contributions and expenditures beyond the figure named.

"Is there a man within sound of my voice who believes it?" Senator Williams asked. "It is a horrible thing to accuse a gentleman of perjury. Do you believe it? You know it's as false as hell."

SELLING MAKES FURTHER PROGRESS

Extreme Reactions on Small Offerings; Little Attention Given Easy Call Money

New York, Jan. 9.—Selling of the general list, with few minor exceptions, made further progress in the stock market today. Extreme reactions of one to three points were effected on comparatively small offerings.

Little attention was given to the continued ease of money on call and time, the strength of foreign exchanges and the more encouraging tone of advices from leading agricultural centers.

Demand loans opened at four per cent, falling to 3½ at midday and to three per cent in the final hour. The minimum figure is the lowest rate reported on the stock exchange since November, 1919. Offerings of time funds at 4¾ per cent applied to all periods with freer purchases of commercial paper.

Another cut in Pennsylvania oil prices and bearish developments pertaining to industrial, mercantile and transportation conditions precipitated the reaction, in which professional shorts again rendered assistance.

Strength of Reading first and second preferred was in striking contrast to the trend of other coalers. The moderate rally before the close was assisted by buying of Mercantile Marine preferred, and Pullman and Haskell & Barker.

The three per cent call money rate influenced the better tone of the bond market, where strength was shown by Liberty issues and other domestic offerings. The foreign division was irregular, however, Belgian, Japanese and Mexican issues advancing while French municipals reacted.

Best Crabs From Chesapeake Bay.

The Chesapeake bay blue crab, the largest specimen found along the Atlantic coast, is considered the best. While these crustaceans were very plentiful a few years ago, it is becoming evident that unless a "closed season" is declared they will become as rare and high priced as terrapin. The little pea crabs, found within oyster shells, are considered a delicacy, while the cancer magister, the large crab of the Pacific coast, is extensively used for food in that part of the country.

Intellectual Arrogance

"Do you want your boy Josh to study the classics?"

"I'm not sure," answered Farmer Corntassel. "My wife'd be a little proud o' him for the family if there was a few things out that Josh couldn't pretend he knew all about."

Sincere Respect.

"What is your favorite form of sport?"

"Golf," replied Senator Sorghum.

"But you seldom play the game."

"That doesn't prevent me from admiring it. The way I actually play it is no compliment whatever."

Johnnie Dundee didn't complain about meeting two men at once when he met the Singer Midgets, in New York. One of them wouldn't have been tall enough to hit him a fair blow.

BROOKLYN NURSE RECOMMENDS THIS STOMACH REMEDY

Personal Experience Shows Benefits of Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules for Indigestion and Dyspepsia

"From personal experience I am satisfied that Jaques Little Wonder Capsules are a splendid preparation, and I have no hesitancy in recommending them to others who are troubled with various stomach derangements. They have proven very beneficial," writes Susie C. Clark, registered nurse of 55 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y., to the Jaques Capsule Company, Inc., of Plattsburg, N. Y.

Hundreds of Letters.

Nurse Clark's is but one of many hundred letters which have been sent to the Jaques Capsule company commending the valuable discovery which is now being put up in convenient capsule form for the relief of indigestion, dyspepsia and the disorders due to overeating or the eating of food which is difficult to digest.

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules are not supposed to cure all diseases, but they are guaranteed to give satisfying relief for disorders of the stomach. They bring quick relief in mild and acute cases, and gradually relieve chronic and obstinate dyspepsia indigestion and constipation.

Save Your Stomach.

The welfare of your whole system is dependent upon the stomach. If your stomach functions properly, food is easily and thoroughly digested and quickly assimilated into the system, making rich red blood and renewing the body waste. If you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, sour stomach, constipation or other disorders or derangements of the stomach or digestive tract, your food is imperfectly digested and often decomposes in the stomach, poisoning the system. Gas forms producing a dull heavy feeling, headache, nausea, fetid breath, heartburn, biliousness and many other ailments result. The undigested food causes loss of appetite and malnutrition. General debility frequently follows and life is shortened. Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules aid in relieving these conditions, assist digestion and tone up the stomach. Save your stomach and you prolong your life.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Physicians, nurses, dentists, ministers, business men and prominent men and women in all parts of the United States have been astonished at the marvelous relief they have experienced from stomach troubles of long standing after taking but a few of these capsules.

Jaques' Little Wonder Capsules are harmless. They contain no irritating or poisonous drugs and are sure relief for indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation without fuss or bother. You simply take one or two capsules and a swallow of water. They are sold under a strict guarantee to refund the money to anyone who is dissatisfied after giving them a trial.

On sale at City Drug store, 215 Main street, Oneonta, N. Y., or 60 cents by mail postpaid for large package from Jaques Capsule company, Plattsburg, N. Y.

Children Who Need Cod Liver Oil Will Take Vinol

Because it contains no oil, but does contain all the medicinal elements which have made Cod Liver Oil famous, together with vegetable iron and other up-building ingredients especially favorable for children. Many children in this city have been restored to robust health by taking Vinol, and we ask any mother who has a delicate child to try it on our guarantee that it is perfectly harmless, and if it does not help the child the druggist will return the full purchase price.

For a hundred years the medicinal elements contained in the cod's liver and oil have been regarded as the safest and best strength and body building medicinal agents known.

Many people, however—especially children—cannot take cod liver oil because of the nauseating oil.

In Vinol they get all the medicinal value of cod liver oil and emulsions in a delicious tasting form and entirely free from oil—agreeable to the most delicate stomach—therefore it is better.

If you have a delicate child, give it Vinol. Knowing that it has helped so many other children, you owe it to the child.

The past year has been an unusually good one for the bank and the business done has been one of the best year's work yet and the circumstances warranted it so they declared this dividend. The directors of the bank are to be congratulated on the good work done by their officers and help, for the good management and increased business and hope that it will be continued to prosper and pay the stockholders an increased dividend also.

HELPS MAKE RICH, RED BLOOD

Annually use organic Nuxated Iron to build up red blood, strength and endurance.

There are thousands of people who are ageing and breaking down at a time of life when they should be enjoying that perfect health which carries defiance to disease simply because they are not awake to the condition of their blood. Without organic iron your blood carries no oxygen, and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food so what you eat does you no good. It is like putting coal into a stove without fire. You can now obtain organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils, and apples from any druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron also contains the principal chemical constituent of active, living nerve force; it is, therefore, a true blood and nerve food. It helps create and rebuild new and stronger red blood cells. It feeds the body the substances which nerve force must have to give it that vital, electro-magnetic power which is stored in the nerve and brain cells of man. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, rundown men and women in two weeks time. The manufacturers guarantee successful results to every purchaser or they will refund your money.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MATTER FOR CONCERN.

It is a matter for grave concern, the attitude which ex-President Eamon DeValera and his more immediate followers take concerning the articles of agreement between England and Ireland. It was hoped that when the matter was finally presented to the Dail Eireann, that body, recognizing that Great Britain had gone the limit in the way of concession, would accept the conditions, not grudgingly or partially, but whole-heartedly and with a determination to make the best of matters. The vote of 57 to 64, however, does not hold out any such promise. It is too nearly an even vote, and it implies that the Irish people instead of acting in concert are divided among themselves.

It is believed by many that it is the intention of DeValera to continue the fight not only against the British government, but against the provisional government of the Irish Free state, which he said in an address to his followers on Saturday, he regards as an usurpation. If this is the case, it will only strengthen a belief not infrequently voiced in the British parliament, that the Irish race is incapable of self-government. They have not shown themselves to be thus incapable in America, and it would be a pity should they fail to recognize in Ireland that all governments are but a series fo compromises, and that in the present instance Erin is coming out very well indeed.

Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins are leaders of the victorious party in the Dail Eireann. It would be a sad outcome should the opposition, unfortunately a large one, succeed in prolonging the conflict.

TO FOLLOW OR LEAD?

The announcement made by the management of a theatre in New York on Sunday, that it had fitted up a smoking room exclusively for women, is accompanied by the further statement that "the theatre must follow the trend of the times."

The proclamation of the management indicates a quite too common view on the part of modern playwrights and managers. They are not seeking to lead the country, they are following too often the trend of a sentiment which is likely to be mawkish, puerile, sensational or debased. The thing which they most clearly see is not the effect on the manners or the morals of the community, but the monetary standpoint.

There was a time when the defenders of the stage based their defense on the uplifting power of it, on the lessons which it taught, and the inspiration which it gave. It is a pleasure to know that there are still such theatres—whose managers give pleasure wholesomely and soundly, teaching lessons which are to abide. These are genuine leaders of thought. They do not say that the theatre must follow; they strive as of yore to lead.

Leaving the question of smoking out of consideration, and after all it is not the chief concern, the real question is as to whether the theatre should "follow the times" or lead them. There is sharp line of demarkation in this matter, as there is in literature, music and picture plays; and there is good reason to hope that at no distant time the theatre as a whole will more fully recognize its possibilities for good.

ACCEPT THEIR MILLIONS.

A year ago there was much said by the press because Charles and Hamilton Garland, sons of James A. Garland of Boston, had refused to accept legacies of one million dollars each, left them in the will of their father. The former in declining his share described it as a protest against a system which starved thousands while hundreds were stuffed. Both have now notified the executor of the Garland estate that they had reconsidered the decision and would accept the money.

That both have since the time of their declaration been married and that each is father of a child may have had something to do with their reconsideration. Wife and child have a potent influence generally with husband and father.

Ireland a Nation.

Ireland is free, delivered from a galling relation of dependence unconsciously prolonged, hurtful both to her and to England, which might have been ended long ago by a mutual exhibition of the reasonableness which led to the negotiation of the treaty ratified yesterday by the Dail Eireann by a vote of 64 to 57. The Irish become really a free people, for in everything that effects their domestic welfare, their prosperity, their political decisions and Government policies, they are unhampered.—[New York Times.

The Sixth Ward Civic Club.

At a meeting of the Sixth Ward Civic club, held last evening, the organization was completed by the election of the following officers:
President—H. E. Gassler.
Vice President—J. L. Palmer.
Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Emma Holowacz.

An executive committee consisting of nine members was also named. The next meeting will be held the first Monday evening in February.

Four for Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Baird and Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Whipple leave tomorrow morning for New York, going thence by rail to New Orleans. After a brief sojourn in the latter city they proceed via the Southern Pacific route to Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend the balance of the winter. They will probably return to Oneonta in May.

THE PRESS AND THE PUBLIC

Where He is Needed.

Eugene V. Debs plans to tour the world, speaking against war. That's fine, if he picks his countries with discretion. The trouble before was that he was electioneering the United States against war when it was Germany that needed his services. There was no danger of this country undertaking an aggressive war. But Germany was specializing in just that. When the police are called out to suppress a gang, its the gang that needs to be labored with, not the police. If Mr. Debs will devote himself to calming down the war-loving countries he will be engaged in a worthy mission, although he may not get anywhere.—[Kansas City Times.

Good Time Getting It.

If you hope and work for the best, and the worst comes, you've sure had a good time gettin' to it.—[Atlanta Constitution.

Reasonable Request.

All New York could reasonably ask is for Mr. Hylan to be as good a mayor as he evidently considers himself capable of being.—[Washington Star.

Keeping Man Home Nights.

London chorus girls, we learn, are becoming parlor maids and cooks, which should help a lot toward keeping the tired business man at home nights.—[Buffalo Express.

Synthetic Gold.

It is only a question of time until that story about synthetic gold being made in Germany is twisted round to look like another tribute to the German dye industry.—[Indianapolis News.

Geology and History.

A very slight difference in geological events prevented Japan from being a peninsula instead of an island. This difference, however, looms up as of the highest importance in political and economic transactions.—[Washington Star.

The American Dollar.

German newspapers say that American soldiers now in Germany make excellent husbands for their German wives. The purchasing power of the American dollar may account for a good deal of that sentiment.—[Detriot Free Press.

A New Spirit in America.

Things in the United States move swiftly, including public opinion, which is constantly in a fluid state. A short time ago it seemed certain that a long, hard, discouraging journey was in store for those who would educate the American people into a new point of view upon international affairs. It is by no means certain now. Already the observer can sense, even if he cannot exactly fix upon, the tremendous shift of sentiment that has already taken place. The real politik of the average American is business and economic logic. Applying that yardstick to the world situation, he is groping toward conclusions which vindicate his essential soundness of judgment. It is even possible for him now to think of Russia without seeing a red flag waving in front of his eyes. —[Baltimore Sun.

GETTING READY TO COLLECT

State Income Tax Bureau Oils Machinery—Some 1919 Payers Receive Refund.

Albany, Jan. 9. — District Director Fred J. Graff of Utica, will be in Albany this week at a general conference of officials of the State Income Tax bureau to put in smooth running order the machinery for the collection of the 1921 tax.

Revised regulations of the bureau and all of the new forms will be ready for distribution at the district offices this week. As in past years, taxpayers who previously filed returns will soon be sent a proper blank for their 1921 return, which may be filed on or before April 15th.

The Bureau repeats its suggestion of some weeks ago that taxpayers whose 1919 returns were affected by the decision of the Court of Appeals in the Klauber case, should file claims for refund. This opinion permitted taxpayers who sold property in that year which they bought before January 1, 1919, to include as income only the actual profit on the transaction, setting aside the previous arbitrary valuation of January 1, 1919. It is believed that thousands of taxpayers who paid additional assessments on their 1919 returns are now entitled to have them refunded, but the Bureau points out that if they want prompt action they should send on a full statement of their cases. Otherwise it will be some time this summer before their 1919 accounts can be adjusted. Part of this year's audit program provides for the re-examination of the 1919 returns and the refunding in proper cases of overpayments made by taxpayers, due to the decision in the Klauber case.

Correspondence coming into the bureau reflects a marked change in the attitude of non-residents towards the New York tax. The disappearance of their resentment is probably due to the positive language in recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court in Oklahoma and New York cases, as to the right of states to tax non-residents on their income from within their borders and limit their deductions to those growing out of their income upon which the tax is paid.

Glenwood Cemetery Elects Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Glenwood Cemetery association, held last evening in the offices of the Wilber National bank, directors for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Albert Morris, George I. Wilber, Walter L. Brown, L. C. Gurney, A. B. Tobey and O. B. Howe. Following the annual meeting the directors met and elected the following officers:
President—Albert Morris.
Vice President—George I. Wilber.
Secretary—Louis C. Gurney.
Treasurer—Walter L. Brown.

The association now has about 150 lots plotted in the developed portion of the cemetery grounds, and lots are being sold at the same figures as before the war. The association, it is further known, has secured additional land enough to meet any possible demand for lots for many generations to come.

PLAN TO REDUCE ELECTION COSTS

Mayors' Conference Proposes Fewer Registration Days and Revision of Election Law

Albany, Jan. 9.—Amendments to the New York election law to provide for three instead of four registration days in second class cities and two instead of four days in third class cities as a means of reducing election costs to the cities are included in recommendations submitted to Governor Miller and the legislature today by the New York state conference of Mayors and other city officials.

The conference also suggests legislation fixing the hours for registration days from 7 a.m. to 9 p. m. instead of from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m., as at present, and that each third class city, through its governing body be permitted by proper amendment to the election law to fix the number of registration places in the several wards.

Changes in the election law to reduce the cost of printing also are suggested. Among the recommendations are:

That the number of register books be reduced from four to two in each election district, one to be filed with the commissioners of elections and the other with the city clerk.

That the number of ballots furnished voting places be reduced from one and one-fifth to one and one-twentieth of the number of registered voters.

Repeal of provisions of the election law requiring the publishing of descriptions of election district boundaries. Publication of street number of polling places and the posting of maps, as now required, are considered sufficient.

That the number of daily publications of lists of candidates as required under Section 13 be reduced from five to one or two insertions.

That the election law be amended so as to provide that the election returns and books be filed by inspectors from the several districts at no expense with the city clerk, who will deliver them to the proper authorities.

That the legislature seriously consider revision of election law provisions requiring stock supplies such as challenge books, affidavits, naturalization papers, stationery, etc., to the end that the amount of these supplies be reduced to actual needs.

Repeal of the provisions relative to police lists and require the police to use the lists filed with the city clerk.

That the election district be made the primary district for all political parties.

Repeal of the provision requiring the making and filing of registration cards.

The recommendations were decided upon by a committee of the conference comprising Mayor Henry M. Leonard, Newburg (chairman); Mayor Edward P. Lynch, Ogdensburg; Mayor A. P. Burkhart, Auburn; Mayor Michael J. Walsh, Watervliet; City Clerk Daniel J. Sweeney, Buffalo; City Clerk W. O. Kerr, Ithaca, and Corporation Counsel W. H. Maider, Gloversville.

"If these suggested changes are made, we are certain that the expenses of elections in the cities of the state will be materially reduced and that the efficiency of the election machinery will in no way be impaired," the committee reported.

OPENING IN FIVE WEEKS

Manager Moore of Oneonta Theatre Believes Playhouse Will be Ready by That Time—O. S. Hathaway Due Today.

When O. S. Hathaway, owner of the Oneonta theatre, arrives in the city today, Manager Ed. R. Moore will be able to point out to him the fact that work on the playhouse has progressed to such an extent that the formal opening will be possible in about five weeks. The work of constructing the new lobby through the old store of Derrick, the florist, is being pushed rapidly and the plastic work and decorating in the auditorium is well along.

Under the supervision of a representative of Maiby and Sons of Corning the plastic workers have about finished their task. August Olsoles and an assistant have arrived from Chicago and they, with three local painters, are doing the decorating. Mr. Olsoles did the decorative work in Hathaway's new Binghamton theatre and has promised that the Oneonta theatre will equal, if not surpass, in attractiveness the Binghamton theatre, known as one of the most beautiful playhouses in the country. The work on the heating and cooling system, which will be of the same type installed in the Elks home, is nearly finished.

The lobby will have a tiled floor and the wood work will be done in golden oak. Work on the lobby is being done in connection with the construction of the smoking rooms for men and the retiring rooms for women, the latter to be situated in a wing built in the alley back of the new store being constructed for Derrick.

When the theatre is finally completed a grand opening will be held, it being Mr. Hathaway's intention to secure the biggest New York success that it is possible to book.

RURAL CARRIERS AND PENNIES.

Purchase Supply of Stamps and Save Faithful Workers Inconvenience.

Attention of patrons of rural mail routes is called to the fact that the postal regulations provide that they "are expected to provide themselves with stamps, through purchase from the carriers, and to affix the proper postage to mail before depositing it in boxes for collection." This ruling apparently is little observed and causes much inconvenience to the carriers. Some persons persist in neglecting to purchase stamps from the carrier and instead, when they have a letter to mail, place two cents in the box with the letter. This means that the carrier often has to do considerable "fussing" to locate the money and put it in his pocket. Especially, on these prevalent cold days, he must remove his gloves and unbutton his coat, and by the time he has completed this operation he is chilled through, and also has experienced considerable delay.

The rural carriers are noted for the excellent service they render, rain or shine (or snow) and it would be an appreciated courtesy if each patron would purchase a supply of stamps from his carrier and have the outgoing mail properly stamped when it is placed in the box for the carrier to pick up.

MISS POSTEN'S REPORT

That Family Social Work Association Has Notable Record of Accomplishment During 1921 is Revealed by Report of Executive Secretary.

The report of Miss Bertha Poston, executive secretary of the Family Social Work association, for 1921 shows gratifying activity and the accomplishment of necessary work that would have been undone but for the association. Efficient work in a city the size of Oneonta must of necessity be done in an unostentatious manner and the rights of those personally affected must be protected from the public's knowledge of their condition and for that reason the report is general in its nature, dealing only with such impersonal statistics as give the scope of the work without revealing the nature of individual cases.

In her work Miss Poston cooperated closely with the police department, 90 of her cases being technically classified under the head of police work, although not all of them were brought into court. A great deal of work was also done in cooperation with the Red Cross and with the State Commission for Mental Defectives and arrangements were made to hold clinics to see whether certain school children needed special training suited to their mentality.

The folowing extracts from the report give an idea of the character of the work done by the association, under the supervision of Miss Poston, during the eight months covered.

"There were 111 new cases, 33 old, and five recurrent making a total of 149 which were taken under care. We closed 56 during the year and there remained in charge at the end of the year 93 cases, besides which there were 28 cases which were not taken under care but which received some attention. These cases were referred as follows: The police referred 59, the nurse, 8; individuals, 44; organizations, 16; there were 11 personal applications and 11 incidental to the other work of the secretary. The causes of dependency as well as they can be analyzed, are delinquency, 62; insanity, 1; industrial injury, 1; need of general supervision, 31; illness, 21; old age, 6; death, 3; mental defect, 62; non-support, 7; begging, 1; insufficient income, 5.

"The accomplishments of the past eight months have been modest but there are some few things which you ought to know and which show the trend of the work. We had in court 28 cases; placed on probation 12; fined 5, and sentenced 16. Of the 16 sentenced, one was sent to Albion, one to Hudson, one to Albany; and 13 sentences were suspended. One girl was sent to Rome; two to the state hospital, one held for the federal authorities; two held for the grand jury; three ordered out of town; 13 examined for venereal diseases; six compelled to take treatments; 28 examined for mental defect; 5 sent to the hospital for one cause or another; one referred to supervising institution; two located for relatives; two others sent home to relatives, and 15 referred to the Girl Scouts. We helped one girl to buy glasses; loaned one money for room rent; helped several to buy necessary clothing; persuaded four to start savings accounts; collected a doctor's bill from a man for a girl he had wronged; found work for one; boarded one two weeks in the country; helped five arrange to go to the sanatorium; collected $40.00 in a non-support case; had Christmas dinner for 12; took six girls camping; and arranged to have detention room cleaned."

The activities of the recreation committee of the association were notable and included the organization of the Recreation Dancing club, the Blue Bird club, the 'Girls' club, the Business Woman's club, sewing classes for girls and Girl Scout troops. This consists of Mrs. A. E. Ford, chairman, Mrs. George B. Baird and Mrs. I. S. Dauley.

ONEONTA AUTOMOBILE CLUB

Officers Elected at Annual Meeting Last Evening and Plans and Policies Discussed—Club in Flourishing Condition With Fine Record of Accomplishment and Extensive Plans for Future.

At the annual meeting of the Oneonta Automobile club, held last evening at the Municipal building, officers were elected for the ensuing year, the work which the club has done during the past year was discussed and plans were laid for increased activity during 1922. The chair was occupied by R. C. Lauren, the vice president, with Dr. A. H. Brownell acting as secretary.

A nominating committee appointed by the chair presented the names of L. P. Butts for president, R. C. Lauren for vice president and Dr. A. H. Brownell for secretary and treasurer and those men were unanimously elected. The report of the secretary and treasurer for 1921, H. W. Lee, was then read and showed a considerable balance in the treasury of the organization and most gratifying work done during the past year. Among the accomplishments of the club were the posting of road intersections with sign boards and warning signs and the purchase of an additional snow plow. The legislative committee was active throughout the year and accomplished considerable for the benefit of the members. Not the least of the club's activities was the furnishing to members of information concerning many matters of interest and importance to automobile owners. The membership during 1921 was 428. Since the first of the year 23 new members have joined.

Ralph S. Wyckoff, chairman of the Boosters, appeared for that organization and outlined certain matters discussed at recent meetings of the Boosters. He pledged the assistance of the Boosters in the coming campaign for members and in the regular work of the club. It had ben decided by the Boosters to foster the erection of an ornamental sign post at the corner of Chestnut and Main streets showing directions to important points and to assist in the placing of signs in various cities showing directions to Oneonta and Mr. Wyckoff asked the support of the Automobile club in those matters.

The matter of furnishing trip cards to members was brought up and upon the motion of Mr. Wyckoff it was decided to have printed a supply of cards showing mileage and routes to Albany, Binghamton, Utica and Kingston. These cards will be left at hotels, garages, etc., where autoists may secure them.

It was suggested that the club appoint a qualified person to give instruction to members unfamiliar with the mechanism of their cars but no action was taken in the matter.

STOCK-TAKING CAMPAIGN

Boosters and Older Men Compete in Team Work for Membership.

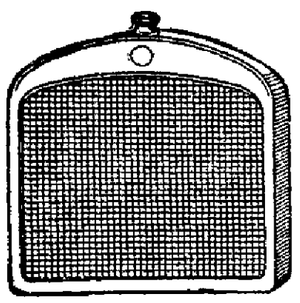

Final preparations for the Chamber of Commerce stock-taking campaign are being rushed at "full speed ahead." Colonel A. E. Ceperley and Majors R. E. Brigham, Roscoe C. Briggs and H. W. Fluhrer, who will marshal the forces of the members challenged to competition in the campaign by the Boosters, met yesterday afternoon and perfected their plans to give the younger men a hearty tussle for the laurels.

But, Colonel Ralph S. Wyckoff of the Boosters is just a confident as ever that the younger members of the Chamber as represented by Boosters on the campaign teams, will live up to their reputation by showing the necessary "pep." He has selected as his chieftains to serve as captains of teams, I. J. Bookhout, M. V. Beckstedt, C. J. Van Deusen, C. R. McCarthy and C. H. Dorr. Asserting that the captains are all "self-starters," Colonel Wyckoff declared that his organization would need no majors.

Monday noon of next week will see the campaign getting underway for the two day period, ending Wednesday noon. The task is slight as compared with the reorganization of last year. The workers will seek to keep in line about 50 members in arrears for dues, together with 400 other members who have been prompt and faithful in keeping their pledge, and to add to the membership roll at least 50 out of a prospect list of about 125 citizens, whom Chamber officials believe can afford to belong and should assist in carrying on the work of community advancement and betterment.

Meigs B. Russell, one of the ablest men on the field staff of the American City bureau, will be in Oneonta next week, arriving Monday, to assist the board of directors and Secretary Hicks in directing the campaign and in holding the program of work meetings of members on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, at which suggestions will be received for activities to undertake during 1922.

AUSTRIAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Lifeless Body of Antoniz Mizrozick of New York Found Hanging From Tree on Farm of Friend at Elk Creek

Cooperstown, Jan. [illegible] — Antoni Mizrozick, and Austrian [illegible] years of age committed suicide by hanging at Elk Creek sometime between Friday evening when he left the home of a friend and Saturday morning when his lifeless body was found hanging from the branch of a tree. Dr. Lloyd J. Atwell conducted an investigation by direction of Coroner N. W. Getman of Oneonta and a verdict of suicide was announced when it was discovered that the footprints of only one man led to the tree.

Mizrozick came from New York on Thursday, accompanied by another Austrian, to visit a friend who recently purchased a farm near Elk Creek. On Friday evening he went out for a walk and when he failed to return the family conducted a search but could find no trace of him. The body was found hanging to a tree on the farm Saturday morning.

The body has been shipped to Philadelphia where he has four children living. The man's wife died about two years ago and it is understood that he has been in poor health since that time.

SECOND TRIAL OF H. W. SMITH

Slayer of Lewis H. Johnson Faces Judge and Jury at Norwich—Four Jurors Accepted—Smith's Facility When Handcuffed

Norwich, Jan. 9 — Justice Abraham L. Kellogg exercised his gratitude when at noon four jurors [illegible] of [illegible] examined had been accepted to sit in the second trial of Herbert W. Smith for the alleged murder of Lewis H. Johnson. He complimented the jurors of the regular panel on their evident desire to do their full duty as citizens. The four jurors selected are all farmers residing in different towns widely scattered throughout the county. Ernest C. Hills of North Norwich the first juror accepted was the second one examined. Earl M. Robinson of Otselic was the seventh and William E. Austin of Pitcher and C. A. Woodruff of Bainbridge were the ninth and tenth respectively to be examined. George Tingle, a farmer of Afton was excused because of his keen sympathy for some of the parties connected with the tragedy with whom he was acquainted. All of the others examined were rejected either because of their prejudices or opinions which were too well fixed to lay aside. At 12.30 court adjourned until 2 o'clock.

During the afternoon eight were examined and all of them were rejected either on account of their opinions or their prejudices. Court adjourned for the day shortly before 5.30 o'clock as the regular panel of jurors had been exhausted. A special panel of 200 will report in the morning at 10 o'clock and it is hoped the jury can be completed by Tuesday night if not earlier.

District Attorney Ward M. Truesdell for the people and former District Attorney David P. Lee for the defense are both conducting their cases unassisted as at the first trial. The prisoner, Herbert W. Smith appeared in court in the same suit of grey that became familiar at his first trial. He wore a cap to match and this afternoon when Justice Kellogg announced that the prisoner might be removed from the court room Sheriff Walworth slipped on the handcuffs and Smith without waiting to leave the enclosure about the court officers with his manacled hands swung his cap jauntily upon his head and started down the aisle, not realizing that he had demonstrated how readily he could have handled the shotgun handcuffed as he was at the time of the shooting.

He inserted a 1 before the 8 and was accordingly paid for 18 hours work before the forgery was discovered. This is not Walrath's first offense and so it decided to prosecute. He was arrested yesterday and when arraigned waived examination and was held for the grand jury under $1,000 bail which he was unable to raise.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

Read This Letter from Mrs. W. S. Hughes

Greenville, Del.—"I was under the impression that my eldest daughter had some internal trouble as ever since the first time her sickness appeared she had to go to bed and even had to quit school once for a week. I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound myself so I gave it to her and she has received great benefit from it. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish, as I cannot say too much about what your medicine has done for me and for my daughter." Mrs. WM. S. HUGHES, Greenville, Del.

Mothers and oftentimes grandmothers have taken and have learned the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So they recommend the medicine to others.

The best test of any medicine is what it has done for others. For nearly fifty years we have published letters from mothers, daughters, and women, young and old, recommending the Vegetable Compound. They know what it did for them and are glad to tell others. In your own neighborhood are women who know of its great value.

Mothers—daughters, why not try it?

WEST END AND THE PLAINS

New School Opens With 74 Children Registered—Oyster Supper at Elm Park Church Friday Evening.

The new Plains school opened yesterday morning with a very gratifying attendance, 74 children being registered by Principal William Hastings and his assistant, Mrs. Lucy Vrooman. The children seemed well pleased with their new "home" and voted it a great improvement over the old white schoolhouse on the Otego road. The new building, which was described in Saturday's issue, is up to date in every way, and the trustees are to be commended for its satisfactory completion.

The large registration makes it impossible for two teachers to handle conveniently, so Mrs. Wallace Mahon of Morgan avenue has been engaged and will begin her duties Wednesday morning. The registration probably will exceed 80, as several children were unable to be present yesterday.

Supper at Elm Park Church.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Elm Park church will serve an oyster supper in the church parlors Friday evening of this week, commencing at 6 o'clock. No further comment is necessary, as the ladies of Elm Park have already established their excellent reputation as regards dinners and suppers.

Charles Lane at Home.

Charles Lane, whose right ankle was fractured while he was working on the ice field last Friday, was removed to his home at the Plains yesterday from the Fox Memorial hospital, where he had been for treatment. Mr. Lane is resting comfortably but of course it will be a month or more before he will be able to be about again.

Arrival of a Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Platt of Lower Chestnut street are rejoicing over the birth of a seven-pound son at the Fox Memorial hospital last Thursday. The young man will answer to the name of Earl Leslie Platt jr. The mother is best remembered as Miss Eva Rounds.

George Rathbone Seriously Ill.

George Rathbone of 13 Kearney street, who is visiting his son, Lester Rathbone, in Binghamton, was taken ill there with acute Bright's disease. Although seriously ill, his condition yesterday was reported to be slightly improved, a fact which his many friends will be glad to learn.

Timely West End Topics.

The Loyal Workers will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Parks Lyke, Madison avenue.

Charles Howland has moved his family to 7 Hubbell avenue, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Howland is a machinist employed in the local factory of the Kayser company.

Mrs. W. A. Shafer of 365 Chestnut street was in West Oneonta yesterday, where she called on her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Green, who is seriously ill with pneumonia.

The Christmas cantata, "The Shepherd's Story," was repeated at the Elm Park church Sunday evening before a large audience. The program was carried out in the same manner as at Christmas and was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Orr have received a crate of oranges from her niece, Mrs. Belle McCrum, who is spending the winter in St. Augustine, Fla. They are much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shuman of 17 Jackson avenue were in Roxbury yesterday to call on his brother, Elmer Shuman, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. They found the patient was making good progress.

Miss Sylvia Perry of Mt. Vision was the guest Saturday of Miss Hazel Gibson, 336 Chestnut street.

Mrs. A. H. Olmstead of Davenport spent the week-end with Mrs. Ida Lane of the Plains.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO DANCED HIS NIMBLE WAY TO SUCCESS

Hero of Ingram's "The Four Horsemen" Won Chance from His Dancing.

Rudolph Valentino, the celebrated young dancer who has the leading male role in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," a Rex Ingram production for Metro, coming to Hathaway's Oneonta theatre for three days, commencing Thursday of this week, found his way to fame and fortune through his nimble feet.

When you see Mr. Valentino in this screen adaption of the world-famous novel of Vicente Blasco Ibanez by June Mathis and notice his finished acting, the sure swagger of the cafe scenes laid in the Argentine, the polish of his manner in interpreting the student lover in Paris, it will be your unquestionable opinion that here is a man initiated in theatrical ways as a child.

But it was neither as a dancer nor an actor that Mr. Valentino hoped to take fortune by storm. It was in the more humble sphere as a prospective agriculturist that he came to the United States at the age of eighteen, a graduate from the Royal Military College of Agriculture at Genoa, Italy. As he planned his future he would become one of the great land owners in this country of opportunity.

But things happened swiftly for him in New York. Soon he was busy teaching Broadway's regulars his graceful steps. He appeared at Rector's as dancing partner of Bonnie Glass, followed this engagement with one in the Winter Garden and a long term contract in vaudeville.

From dancing to motion pictures was an easy step. His first picture with Mae Murry in "The Big Little Person." When Rex Ingram, in his painstaking search for the type to portray the pleasure-loving South American hero of "The Four Horsemen" saw Valentino, he chose him for the part.

Seat Sale opens tomorrow.

HOMEMAKERS' PROGRAM

Women Visitors to Farmers' Week at Cornell May Talk Over Variety of Problems.

The fourteenth annual homemakers' conference to be held at Ithaca in connection with Cornell Farmers' Week, February 13-18, announces the following speakers:

Dr. Amy Daniels, of the Iowa child welfare research station at Iowa City, a recognized authority on the nutrition of children, will be Cornell's guest throughout the week. Besides giving several addresses on health standards for children and child feeding, Dr. Daniels will be available for conferences with individuals regarding special problems. Sarah Louise Arnold, of Simmons college, Boston, and Miss Grace Abbot, Chief of the Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, will also address the conference.

Hospitality, in home and community, is the subject for one afternoon when members of the home economics staff and friends will hold simple entertainments, socials, dinners and parties, using the furnishings and equipment of the average home.

A "question box" on home problems has been scheduled for another afternoon and an exhibit of labor-saving devices has been arranged.

Discussions on feeding and training of children, clothing problems, food selection and labor-saving equipment will run throughout the week, giving the visitors to Farmers' Week the equivalent of a short course in home-making.

A TALK WITH AN ONEONTA MAN

Mr. P. J. Moore, Railroad Fireman, 33 Gilbert Street, Tells His Experience.

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with an Oneonta man:

"I was bothered with kidney trouble for quite awhile and there was a constant, dull pain across my back and kidneys," says Mr. Moore. "I could hardly turn over in bed, my back hurt so. I had to get up often at night to pass the kidney secretions, too. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking three boxes the trouble disappeared. I gladly recommend Doan's to anyone in need of a kidney medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Moore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PREMIERS CONFER ON ALLIANCE PLAN

Lloyd George and Briand Discuss Proposal to Bring Two Countries Closer Together

(By The Associated Press)

Cannes, Sunday, Jan. 8.—Premiers Briand and Lloyd George today had their first talk on the future relations between France and Great Britain since they have been at Cannes. It is understood that they went over broadly the principal questions, this being necessary to settle the order and form the basis of a closer entente pact or alliance.

Franco-British alliance for mutual defense has created a strong undercurrent of opinion here, despite the fact that the atmosphere has seemed to be little favorable to negotiations tending to make the relations between the two countries closer. M. Briand and Mr. Lloyd George seem far apart regarding the attitude the Allies ought to take toward Germany after the default in the payment of reparations, and are not at all in accord as to whether the explanations ought to be heard at Cannes.

Council circles were much agitated today by reports from Paris that a treaty had been signed, but the only document known to exist touching upon the question of an alliance is a memorandum which sets forth reasons as a basis for such a pact. M. Briand's flat declaration for an alliance before he departed from Paris made a marked impression on the British, who advanced the argument that it would be easier to deal with France on European questions if she were not able to hold forth as an argument on her part failure to secure from the United States guarantees for her security, such as would have been given her if the Versailles tripartite agreement had been ratified.

The decision to discuss the situation in Asia Minor here, instead of in Paris at a later date, is interpreted as a move to do away with all subjects in controversy between the two countries, so as to clear the way for a convention covering all European and Eastern questions.

There will be a union meeting of all members of the B. of L. E., B. of L. F. and E., O. R. C., B. of R. T., and O. R. T., held at Municipal hall, Tuesday evening, Jan. 10, at 7:30 p. m. The five general chairmen will be present. Every member should make an earnest effort to be present.

A "balanced diet" may sound confusing to many people

The facts, as explained here, are simple.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues; starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat; and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with milk or cream for breakfast; or with stewed fruit, jelly or jam, as a delicious dessert for lunch or dinner.

Every member of the family will relish this palatable and nourishing food—
